the story behind why magnus nilsson is closing fäviken

*June 7th, 2020 - magnus nilsson is sitting in the april sun looking out at the garden at fäviken his 24 seat restaurant in jämtland in central sweden the snow is melting fast and the garden one of two that''fäviken

June 3rd, 2020 - the restaurant is located on the 19th century fäviken egendom estate which consists of 20 000 acres of farmland and is located around 750 kilometres 470 mi north of stockholm and 25 kilometres 16 mi by road from the åre ski resort the current owners purchased the property in 2003 and hired chef turned sommelier magnus nilsson in 2008 to oversee the wine cellars'

June 2nd, 2020 - just as the best travel books describe an internal and external journey faviken tells the story of a chef discovering his cuisine in the woods of sweden the sense of place is palpable and this is both an aspirational and inspirational ode to nature'

'a book review by penny pleasance faviken

April 7th, 2020 - fäviken is a book for book lovers as well as cookbook connoisseurs it is a beautifully crafted book printed on thick off white or gray paper and contains geous full page photos that are gently washed giving it the feel of stepping into the soft light of a late swedish summer when the nights begin to draw in sadly though as well crafted''faviken nilsson magnus 9780714864709 books
